[REDACTED] the Kwangsi government and the Kwangsi austerity inspection committee issued a joint order instructing government organs and austerity inspection committees of hsien level and lower temporarily to stop enforcing the three-anti's movement. This order is summarized as follows:

1. The three-anti's movement in Kwangsi will be enforced only by organizations down to and including special districts of the first grade. Subordinate units of the special districts and government organizations of hsien level and lower will temporarily cease action in this movement.
2. One reason for stopping such activities in hsien and lower organizations is to make these organizations devote all their efforts to the 1952 spring farming campaign and to famine prevention preparations. Another reason is to avoid a feeling of unrest among cadre personnel who have been participating in village land reform work.
3. Cadre personnel in the organizations ordered to stop their activities should not neglect the study of documents containing facts and accusations related to the three-anti's movement.
4. Individual hsien organizations specially designated or approved by the Kwangsi government may be exempted from the order.
5. A separate order regarding the resumption of this movement will be issued at a future date.
